

FOUND DYING IN STREET AFTER A KNIFE DUEL

Eight Men Who Looked on While Stranger Fought De
Guiseppi Arrested.

Manlio Philippo di Guiseppi, of No. 433 Lincoln road, Brooklyn, engaged in a knife duel in front of a saloon at No. 435 Lincoln road at 7 A. M. to-day with a man known only as "John" and when the battle ended Di Guiseppi had five stab wounds, any one of which was sufficient to have put the ordinary man out of business. Di Guiseppi, however, ran for blocks before he fell unconscious and lay bleeding on the sidewalk, where a policeman found him. Then he was sent to Kings County Hospital. It is said he will die.

Di Guiseppi had saved $200 and was anxious to buy the saloon in Lincoln road, which is owned by Martino de Martino. He was trying to clinch the bargain with De Martino when eight men entered the place. Behind them came another man who seemed bent on making mischief. He and Di Guiseppi were not slow to quarrel and then went to the street, both with drawn knives, to fight it out.

The eight men followed and watched the two men as they parried and thrust. When Di Guiseppi was disarmed and his antagonist drove his knife to the hilt first in his back, then in his side and neck, the eight men looked on and seemed to approve.

Di Guiseppi started to run, and continued the race until he fell exhausted. The eight men who witnessed the fight were arrested by the reserve police under Lieut. Lavis and held as witnesses.

The police are inclined to believe that Di Guiseppi was the victim of a murder plot and that the man who stabbed him was an agent of some secret society.

ENDS LIFE AFTER QUARREL WITH SON

Aged Widow Estranged From Children Kills Herself
With Gas.

Because she was estranged from her two sons Mrs. Caroline Fisher, sixty-eight years old, killed herself by inhaling gas during the night in her basement room, at No. 902 East Fifteenth street. Her body was discovered early to-day by her landlady, Mrs. Barbara Albert.

Mrs. Fisher, she had told Mrs. Albert had two sons, one of whom lived in New York. She formerly made her home with the latter's family, but frequent quarrels with her daughter-in-law led to their being compelled to seek another home. This preyed on her mind greatly, said Mrs. Albert, and yesterday afternoon she had remarked that "it is a terrible thing when a mother as old as I am is estranged from her son."

She seemed more cheerful when she retired, but had evidently got out of bed during the night and turned on the gas.

TOLSTOI'S HEALTH RESTORED.
St. Petersburg, Oct. 8.—The health of Count Leo Tolstoy is completely restored. He has resumed his long walks and rides in the country around Yasnaya Polyana, and he is hard at work at his books.

Men's New Autumn SUITS 151 Varieties in Color, Cut and Fabric

There are rough tight-twisted worsteds, velours and chevrons in handsome stripes of various degrees of distinctness, from hair-line to thick, on dark grounds (the favorite rich browns and greenish tints) and light; and a revival of the clean-cut shepherd's check effects. In fact, the patterns present by far the most attractive assortment we have shown.

Further latitude in selection is afforded by the fact that these patterns are distributed among no less than TWENTY-FIVE DISTINCT MODELS, all new this season, and ranging from the most conservative style to a coat with inverted seams, pockets cut diagonally and fancy cuffs.

The prices of these Suits are

$15, $16.50, $18, $20, $22.50, $25, $28, $30
$32.50, $35, $38, $40 and $45

with specially broad variety at $15, $20, $25 and $30—the most popular prices.

Among the SUITS FOR YOUNG MEN, the same proportionate assortment prevails—forty-four handsome new patterns, in NINE smart models especially designed for college men.

And every suit, no matter what its price, is made of all-wool goods, finished in the thorough manner you expect of Wanamaker clothing.

Main floor, New Building.

The New "Dunbarton" Coat Suit for Women at $25

Women will be delighted with the style and individuality of these new suits. They frankly imitate the cut of a man's very good looking coat, made in Scotland, that we saw recently. And consequently, WANAMAKER'S is the only store at which they can be bought.

The coat is 34 inches long, hanging perfectly straight from the shoulders; the seams at the side are slashed, doing away with the curve of the hips. The notched collar is inlaid with satin; large low pockets, trimmed with braid to give the effect of large buttonholes with buttons; the coat is satin-lined throughout. The skirt is gored and close-fitting, finished with a fold. Material is a fine quality of broadcloth, in black, catwaba, brown and smoke color.

Splendidly tailored, and extremely smart suits for Autumn wearing, at a moderate price—$25.

Third floor, Old Building.

Ninety-five Distinct Styles of Women's Imported SILK and VELOUR COATS

This is doubtless the finest collection of rich Satin, Faille Marquise, Cotele Silk and Velour Coats ever brought over. Particular women will appreciate the graceful lines and faultless tailoring of each elegant garment, as well as the unprecedented diversity of styles presented—each model has the stamp of distinction, of individuality.

At $50 to $120—Velour Coats, fifty-five styles, in every imaginable length, from hip-length models to the graceful 52-inch coat. Many in Empire style, others with semi or tight fitting back some with cutaway front. There are models with the high ruche and Dan-ton collar. The trimmings of hand-embroidery or rich braids are effectively applied.

Third floor, Old Building.

Young Women Will Look Their Best in These Suits

The Suit pictured speaks for itself as to smartness of cut and general good looks, an eminently satisfactory model, as you see. These suits are of fine imported materials in navy blue, gray, green, wine and brown. We have sold readily similar suits for $35, but by a good-luck purchase we are able to mark these new models
